How to ace IB Mandarin Ab Initio – Composition (Paper 1)

Welcome to the How to ace IB Mandarin Ab Initio - Composition (Paper 1) workbook. This resource will help you prepare fully for the final written IB Mandarin Ab Initio assessments.

Composition (Paper 1) in the Mandarin Ab Initio course

The Language Ab Initio course is an organic course. You will learn vocabulary, grammar, syntax, skills and cultural facts throughout the various units that your teacher presents. While the course is open-ended, there are a wide range of themes, topics and text types that must be covered.

The Ab Initio course consists of five themes and twenty topics :

Identities	Experiences	Human ingenuity	Social organization	Sharing the planet
Personal attributes	Daily routine	Transport	Neighbourhood	Climate
Personal relationshipss	Leisure	Entertainment	Education	Physical geography
Eating and drinking	Holidays	Media	The workplace	Environment
Physical well-being	Festivals and celebrations	Technology	Social issuess	Global issuess

In the Language Ab Initio course, there are a number of text types that you need to be able to produce in the final assessments. Your Composition paper (Paper 1) consists of two sections and you will be asked to write two short tasks using different formats.

You should assume that the first task requires you to write a Personal text whereas the second task will require you to write a Professional text or a Mass Media text.

This Composition workbook has been divided into two major parts :

- > Part 1 : samples based on Paper 1 instructions for first exams in 2020
- ▶ Part 2 : samples based on Paper 2 instructions from 2005 until 2019

The two major parts are divided into the three text type categories :

- Personal texts
- Professional texts
- Mass Media texts

The instruction in Paper 1 is very straight-forward : you must complete two written tasks (one from each section) and write between 84 and 180 characters.

How to use this workbook

This workbook encourages you to review the relevant vocabulary and grammar through guided writing and to apply the features of a variety of text types in IB-style writing tasks.

Through the revision of more than ten years' worth of past IB Composition papers you will further familiarize yourself with the text types and with the topic-specific vocabulary. You will be able to revise and practise the grammatical concepts learned and to apply these in creative and personalized writing tasks. The creative nature of this workbook allows for differentiation where you can challenge yourself to explore grammatical variations and to set minimum requirements for yourself (eg "use at least three adjectives").

By the time you reach the end of this workbook, you will have a complete overview of the text types, the key vocabulary, the grammar points and the creative writing opportunities that the IB Ab Initio Paper 1 provides.

For each text type at least one sample exercise has been completed for you. You will find two versions of each sample : one without pinyin and the other with pinyin. The pinyin version will make it easier for you to recognize and understand the sample texts but remember that in the final examination you are only allowed to write in characters !

It is important that you use this workbook in conjunction with the other "Products of Mass Instruction" resources for Mandarin Ab Initio :

- refer to Chapter 9 of the "Language Ab Initio Student Workbook" for details on the Paper 1 exam instructions and the features of each text type, as well as on how to plan and draft your responses to the instructions;
- refer to the "Mandarin Ab Initio Portfolio" for topic-based vocabulary and sample sentences that you can use in your creative writing;
- refer to the "How to Ace Mandarin Ab Initio Reading Comprehension" workbook for syllabus-specific vocabulary, grammar points and sentence structures based on authentic IB Mandarin Ab Initio Reading Comprehension examinations.

The Language Ab Initio Student Workbook

The Language Ab Initio Student Workbook covers all the components of this language acquisition course and provides a step-by-step guide to the various assessments. Each component is broken down into its various parts, and plenty of advice and practice are provided in order to ensure that the student is fully prepared when it matters most. This workbook focuses on reading, writing, listening and speaking and is supported by online resources on our website (www.mihunlimited.weebly.com).

The introduction of a personal Portfolio helps the student create an ongoing record of their learning and allows them to manipulate the language according to the assessment tasks, the formats and the criteria. By making language learning fun and personal, the Ab Initio student will find a great deal of motivation to create, share and reflect on content and culture in the target language.
